SITUATION

The property is situated along Commercial Street in Halifax Town Centre within close proximity to major occupiers including Lloyds Retail Banking Headquarters, Harveys of Halifax and the Leeds Beckett University Business Centre. The property is also located within walking distance of the Grade I* Listed Piece Hall which has benefited from significant tourism influx into the town attracting over 3 million visitors per year. Good transport links exist with Leeds City Centre within 15 miles (30 mins by train), Manchester within 20 miles (40 mins by train) and London Kings Cross 2 hours by train.

PROPERTY/ACCOMMODATION

The premises comprise the historic former Halifax Building Society No. 001 Branch with extensive frontage onto Commercial Street and return frontages onto Alexandra Street and King Edward Street in Halifax Town Centre. The property benefits from an attractive marble façade with inspired Greek Doric pillars with large double doors to the main frontage. A full refurbishment programme has been scheduled to provide the potential for a bespoke fit-out for the incoming tenant. Alternatively, the space can be provided at a shell and core finish awaiting a tenant's fit-out. The retail unit is also able to be split into two retail units. Ancillary basement stores are also available.

The premises provide the following approximate floor areas:
